THE PENNSYLVANIA DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION HAS ADOPTED THE MOTTO OF "EVERY SCHOOL A GOOD SCHOOL" AS PART OF ITS SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT PROCESS. IN A FEW SHORT PARAGRAPHS, PLEASE EXPLAIN WHAT YOU FEEL WOULD BE THE CHARACTERISTICS OF A "GOOD SCHOOL".

A good school is one with the following qualities:

- A faculty of inspired and dedicated teachers who take an interest in their students and who teach because they want the students to improve themselves. Such teachers have knowledge and the ability to transmit that knowledge to their students in an interesting manner. Such teachers, in addition, are capable of establishing for themselves and for their students, realistic but demanding goals. Such teachers are enthusiastic about teaching, and because they are, they not only stimulate, encourage and inspire their students, they also make the students enthusiastic about learning.
- A student body with the ability, sincerity, curiosity and willingness to learn.
- A principal with clear-cut educational and disciplinary goals, and who is capable of implementing those goals. The school of such a principal is one in which there is a positive approach to teaching and learning, and all students and all teachers feel that they are valued and appreciated.
- A body of parents and community leaders who support the educational programs, objectives and needs of the school as a whole.
- A physical plant in which faculty, students and administration can effectively function.
